JR will be greatly missed. Though I haven't seen him in a while he always greeted me the same, a huge smile, would say my name, and never accepted a handshake it always had to be a hug, a bear hug at that. What a great man and friend. See you later. Brent

Jane; What can I say that you have not heard or read already about how Jim has touched someone in a positive way. Terry and I will miss him Greatly. As for me I had and always will have huge respect for Jim. Though I did not visit as often as I wanted to. He always made me feel good about myself even when I was very confused about life. I found him to be a true friend. Like Jim, I served in Vietnam during the time that Jim was there in 1965 & 66. So Jim was more than a brother-in-law to me, he was a comrade. We will miss his smile and awesome demeanor. We all lost a true HERO, both in a military & civilian sense. Jim, you will be and already are missed. See you in Heaven my FRIEND. Our prayers go out to all the family and friends of Jim. Terry & Cliff Nehring

J.R. was a very special person to me. I looked at him as a mentor and a role model, and I always felt honored to be a part of his life. I will dearly miss him and can only hope to turn out be half the man he was, if I can make a fraction of the impact he did I would consider it a great success.

Jane, I am so sorry for your loss, the world has lost a great man. I will never forget the day I met Jim at cable all those years ago, he scared me at first with his tough-guy appearance but as soon as I got to know him I was impressed with the man he was. He added so much to that special crew of people. I know I will never forget him!

K

Ken \Puzzlz\' Freismuth"

My deepest sympathy to Jane, family, friends and the four-legged buddies too. JR and I knew each other since high school and we sure had some great times whether on the Harleys or just hangin' out. He was a great friend, fellow vet and just a guy with a HUGE heart. Love ya buddy!

Patrick & Karen Doiel

When someone like James JR Brown is removed from this world a great wake is left behind in their path like a strong wind or tidal rush that leaves nothing untouched, and in that same way Jim moved all those around him. And like all strong influencers, thinkers, and opinionates, the chasm and void left from their loss is vast, never to be replaced. I held Jim in awe and he was one of my life-long heroes. He was a pillar of strength and fortitude, a man of few words and wisdom, a man of charm and humor. He will be sorely missed. To Jane, Tammy, Todd and the rest of Jim's family, our hearts and thoughts are with you. Patrick & Karen Doiel

Oh Tammy, our hearts are in pain for you and your family. We never met your dad but he must have been one helluva guy to have produced such a wonderful daughter as you. I wish that we could be there for you in person, but we have obligations in Texas pertaining to the death of our granddaughter, Kelsi. I would like to think that your dad is up there taking her for a ride on his bike and being a substitute grandpa. Remember how much we love you and I hope to see you very soon. Sami

John & Joan Brown

There are no words to express how we feel. Not only did Jane & her family lose a very important part of their lives. We as a family, his Mother & his siblings lost someone who has been there in good times and bad for us. No matter what time of day or night if you needed help of any kind you called JR and Rub. They are the salt of the earth. JR is gone but never will he be forgotten. Thanks for all the laughs over the years!!!

Every time I would return to Norht Fond du Lac on leave I would visit Uncle Jim. He ALWAYS welcome me with open arms and can still hear him say, \ Welcome home\". I remember sitting with him and talking with him about anything that would come to mind. He had great insight and was a great man. Whenever I departed his prescence he would always tell me to stay safe and \ "keep your head down\" always looking out for me. I have the utmost respect for him and all he has done for this country. I will miss him and our talks. Love
